Carpenter

Carleigh Fairchild is an adventurer at heart, having studied survival skills since she was a teenager, as well as earth-centric healing methods over the last few years. Thrilled to be selected to participate in season 3, Patagonia, she was excited to test her skills and survive as long as she possibly could. Carleigh's strengths are in shelter building, fire making, edible plants and a establishing a connection with the land. These skills helped her survive 86 days in the wilds of Patagonia.

She struggled with catching fish and keeping up her weight which ultimately led to her extraction. Leaving Patagonia, Carleigh felt so thankful for everything and everyone in her life and there was a realness in living that she had never felt before. She's thankful for a second chance, and hopes to hunt and gather enough food so that she can sustain herself for the long haul.

Here are the ten items Carleigh selected to bring on her survival journey to Mongolia:

1. Paracord
2. Saw
3. Sleeping bag
